Re: Christopher Nabors

Dear Judge Waldron:

On February 17, 1995 between 5:15 a.m. and 6:00 a.m. I performed a psychiatric consult on Mr. Nabors for suicidal ideation.

At that time Mr. Nabors made statements about deserving to die and that he should be dead.

Mr. Nabors' mood was verbalized as feeling ashamed, guilty and depressed.

Due to his presentation I felt that Mr. Nabors was a risk for a suicide attempt and ordered Ativan 2 mg to sedate him.

In my opinion Mr. Nabors did feel remorse about his female companion's death.

Sincerely

Francine Morrison, M.D.
